SARA DE PASQUALE

Hey there, art aficionados and curious minds! I'm Sara De Pasquale, a contemporary artist hailing from the mesmerizing city of Zurich, Switzerland. Get ready to dive into my world of artistic wonder, where experimentation knows no bounds!

I kickstarted my artistic journey with captivating photo collages, capturing analog moments and developing them with my own labor of love. Those intriguing collages became the heart and soul of my „Monochrome Tales“ series. But hey, I wasn't satisfied just yet! I ventured into the realm of acrylic paintings, embracing the allure of metals and rust for my mesmerizing „Corrosion“ series. Rust and transience? They've become my obsessions, finding their way into my artworks in the most fascinating ways. Who knew decay could be so captivating?

Nature's breathtaking beauty and the vibrant rhythm of urban living have left an indelible mark on my soul. My time in London opened my eyes to a world bursting with inspiration, which I've seamlessly incorporated into my artwork. Humanity, environment, and the ever-evolving culture shaping my artistic vision.

There's more! I've taken my journey to daring new heights by crafting contemporary art tiles. It's a whimsical fusion of collages, cutting-edge technologies, and my unrelenting love for detail and perfectionism. Each tile tells a story, capturing the essence of life, love, and bridging the gap between the past and our modern world. Enter my aweinspiring „God of Arts“ series, where imagination takes flight, and the boundaries of creativity are shattered.

So, whether you're a gallery owner seeking the next artistic gem or an art lover hungry for captivating masterpieces, join me on this thrilling artistic odyssey. Together, let's explore the limitless possibilities of creativity, ignite curiosity, and celebrate the magical realm where art and life intertwine. Brace yourself for a journey that defies conventions and embraces the unexpected.
